

MANITOBA'S NATURAL REGIONS

This map shows Manitoba's Natural Regions, which are broad areas that share similarities in geography, climate and vegetation. Protected Areas are to be identified and created in each of Manitoba's Natural Regions. For more information about Manitoba's Protected Areas Initiative visit our website at www.manitobaparks.com

- Northern Transition Forest
 - a) Selwyn Transition Forest
 - b) Kazan River Upland
- Arctic Tundra
 - a) Maguse River Upland
 - b) Coastal Hudson Bay Lowland
- Hudson Bay Lowlands
- Precambrian Boreal Forest
 - a) Churchill River Upland
 - b) Hayes River Upland
 - c) Lac Seul Upland
- Manitoba Lowlands
 - a) Mid Boreal Lowland
 - b) Interlake Plain
 - c) Lake of the Woods
- Aspen/Oak Parklands
- Western Uplands
- Souris Till Plain
- Tall Grass Prairie
- Turtle Mountain
- Pembina/Tiger Hills
- Assiniboine Delta

